Terms and Conditions

By applying for the "pitch marathon" startup competition you agree to the terms and conditions written below.

Pitch Marathon is a brand of German Startups Association e.V., Schiffbauerdamm 40, 10117 Berlin.

§ 1. General

Entry is open to startups from any country.
Applications must be willing to present and demonstrate their product or service in public.

§ 2. Selection Criteria

Applicants are judged based on the feasibility of their business model, the degree of differentiation from competitors, and the attractiveness of the market which they address.
German Startups Association e.V. reserves the rights to reject entries from applicants who promote illegal or offensive product content.

All applications have to be sent in by Sunday, March 5th, 2017, 11:59 PM, CET.

It is up to the sole discretion of German Startups Association e.V. to pick the most promising applicants at the end of the pitch marathon on April 7th, 2017. Please note that upon receiving positive feedback for your application, you are obliged to purchase a "pitching Ticket" for Startup Camp Berlin in the value of 50,00€ per Person.

§ 3. Prizes

The best 26 teams will be invited to present at the pitch marathon on April 7th, 2017. The winners will be found through a process decided by German Startups Association e.V.

The results of this process are final and there is no recourse to legal action.

Prizes are subject to change until the day of the event.

Prizes are subject to availability and the prize suppliers' terms and conditions.

All prizes are provided by partner companies.

German Startups Association e.V. is not liable for the unavailability of prizes.

§ 4. Broadcast of Offline Finals

All selected participants of the event grant German Startups Association e.V. ownership of intellectual property of the film footage and the right to use the footage for their own purposes.

All applicants agree to the use of their names, photographs, logos, and video material, and will cooperate with any other reasonable requests from the German Startups Association e.V. relating to any post-event publicity.

§ 5. Application Data & Privacy

All applicants grant German Startups Association e.V. permission to share their applications and contact details with their partners and participating investors and also grant permission to contact them with future information, offers, and content related to pitch marathon.

§ 6. Limitations of Liability & Jurisdiction

All applicants waive any right of recourse against German Startups Association e.V., volunteers and staff in respect of any claims which may arise of the applicants' involvement in this competition. German Startups Association e.V. reserves the rights to amend or alter the terms and conditions. Should parts or individual phrases of these participation conditions be invalid, the remaining parts shall remain unaffected in their content and validity. Further requirements on the part of the participant, particularly indemnity requirements of any kind, are excluded.

The place of jurisdiction for both parties is exclusively Berlin.
